COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 24, 1880.

CONSOLS advanced yesterday from 98⅛ to 98¼, French Rentes were unchanged at 116½ and Enfaced Rupee Paper at 78½ for Fours and 85¾ for Fours-and-a-half.

Coffee is reported quiet at previous prices; Ceylon Cocoanut Oil 10s. per ton lower, Cochin unchanged. Bombay Linseed is quoted 1s. per quarter lower, and a decline of 1s. per quarter is noted in Indian Wheat to arrive.

The Manchester Piece Goods market continues firm at former prices.

Cotton in Liverpool yesterday closed firm, and to-day's report is similar in tone, the sales both days being 10,000 bales. Spot prices are all unaltered, but arrivals we hear are a shade firmer. From New York ready Mid. Uplands comes unchanged at 12⅛ cents., and April shipment, which yesterday advanced to 13·08, has declined again to-day to 13·05 cents. per lb.

The comparative firmness shown by the market in face of the continued heavy receipts is remarkable, and can only be attributed to the strength derived from Manchester, coupled perhaps with an idea that the receipts may begin to lose ground ere long. Every day, however, seems to render a crop of 5¼ millions or over more probable, and if this is to be the case, the present level of prices is not likely to be supported.

The American crop figures to date are as follows :—

	1880.	1879.	1878.
Week's Receipts.....	166,000	150,000	159,000
,, Exports to U K.....	55,000	85,000	73,000

The statistical position of the staple to date, affords the following comparisons with the two previous years :—

Total supply of all kinds.	2,330,000	2,155,140	2,426,030

Bar Silver according to Reuter is still quoted at 52¾d. per oz., equivalent to about 1·. 8 7-32d. per rupee.

EXCHANGE to-day has undergone a relapse of the most sudden and decided character. The Calcutta market, we understand, closed yesterday with signs of weakness, and as the rise here was from the first entirely dependent on the advices from that quarter, rates gave way the moment there was any symptom of the support being withdrawn. To begin with we opened at a decline of 1-16d all round, but on the reaction in Calcutta being confirmed, an additional decline of 1-32d. to 1-16d. was established in Bank Bills, and it seems not unlikely from the appearance of things at the close that a further fall may yet take place. The reaction can scarcely be a matter for surprise as it was very evident that there was nothing whatever in the situation, as seen from a Bombay stand point, to warrant an upward movement of so rapid a character. When the demand for money at the Rice Ports fairly sets in, and exports here become more active, which will probably be the case in the course of another three weeks or a month, an advance may be justified, but in the present position of affairs closing rates to-day are quite high enough. We quote :—

Bank Bills, on demand	1s. 8¼	9-32d.	per Rs.
Do. 2 months' sight...	1s. 8	3d,	,,
Credits 2 ,, ,, ...	1s. 8	9-16d.	,,
Documents 2 ,, ,, ...	1s. 8	3d.	,,
France 2 ,, ,, ...	2	16	,,

On Calcutta we still quote demand drafts at 1-16 to ⅛ per cent. premium, 60 days' sight at 11-16 per cent. discount.

GOVERNMENT PAPER to-day has been quieter owing to the reaction in Exchange. We have not heard of any business of importance, but rates are partially ⅛ easier, say :—Fours, Rs. 92½ to Rs. 93 ; Fours-and-a-half, Rs. 101⅛ to ¼.

SHARES.—Bank of Bombays are again ½ per cent. lower at Rs. 692½. Land Companies are unchanged. In Press Shares we notice a decline of Rs. 5 in Bellary and Indian, and Rs. 20 in East India. Spinning and Weaving Mill shares are very firm, and generally tending upwards. Anglo-Indian are quoted Rs. 4 lower, but Oriental are Rs. 5, Coorla Empress and Madras United Rs. 10, and Soonderdass Rs. 30 per share higher. Bombay Saw Mills are Rs. 10 lower, Landing and Shipping Company of Kurrachee Rs. 15 higher.

COTTON.—The former feeling advised from Liverpool induced a corresponding tendency here on the part of sellers who have accordingly been asking an advance of Rs. 1 to Rs. 2 per candy. After the decline in Exchange was established, some few transactions took place on this basis, but, as a general rule, buyers declined to operate and only a small business has consequently been done. We quote :—

Good Oomra, January .....Rs.	242	per	candy.
Do. ,, February..... ,,	237	,,
Do. ,, March ..... ,,	234	,,
Do. Broach ,, ... ,,	248	,,
Do. Dholleras April ..... ,,	238	,,

SEEDS are dull at unchanged prices.

FREIGHTS are quiet. For Liverpool some rates for immediate shipment are said to have been done at 30s., but the current quotation is 32s. 6d. to 35s. For Genoa and Marseilles we quote 40s. and for Trieste and Venice 42s. 6d., payable here.

PIECE GOODS continue very firm, and prices, if not quotably higher, certainly show an upward tendency. The clearances to-day are estimated at about 400 packages and the up-country demand shows no signs of taking off. For Local Goods and Yarns the enquiry continues extremely active.

COAL.—Sellers are again showing more willingness to do business to arrive, and the sale is reported to-day of a cargo of Davison's West Hartley, January-February steamer at Rs. 18½, and there are sellers of Cardiff in a like position at the same rate.

MONDAY, JANUARY 26, 1880.

AFFAIRS in Afghanistan seem to have settled down once more into an uneventful course, and it is improbable that the British force at Kabul will have anything to do, for the remainder of the winter season, beyond strengthening its position and preparing for the resumption of active hostilities in the spring. It is true that calculations of what the Afghans are likely to do must be mere guess-work, for General Roberts was taken completely by surprise on finding himself opposed last month by a formidable combination of the tribes of all the districts within 150 miles of Kabul, and it is quite possible that he still remains in absolute ignorance of the strength and designs of his most active enemy, Mahomed Jan, who may at any moment suddenly reappear at the head of a numerous and well appointed army. But it is reasonable to suppose that the chance of a fresh attempt being made by the Afghans to turn the English out of the country is very remote. It is now a month since the investment of Sherpur was raised. In the interval, a large number of chiefs have come into the British camp to make their submission ; and, what is of more consequence, Sir Frederick Roberts has had time to receive considerable reinforcements of men and large supplies of ammunition and food, as well as to complete the defences of his camp and clear the approaches to it of the forts and villages in which the Afghans found shelter, and to mature a plan for the protection of the city against another irruption of the enemy. At the same time, effectual measures have been taken for making the Khyber line of communications between Kabul and Peshawur absolutely secure. A simultaneous rising in December of all the frontier tribes along this route would have rendered General Roberts's position exceedingly precarious, and perhaps closed the passes till a new army could be collected to force a way through to Kabul. But, happily for India, the Afghans and their allies seem to be incapable of concerting and executing any well-conceived scheme of simultaneous action. Thus, the Ghilzais in the Jagdalak hills made but feeble and faint hearted attempts to oppose General Gough's advance, and evidently awaited the result of the fighting at Kabul before committing themselves to a deadly struggle with the English invaders. So, again, the Mohmunds, after remaining inactive till the additional troops ordered up to the front by the Government of India were already close to Peshawur, began to waste their strength in desultory attacks, which were easily repulsed, on our posts from Daka to Jallalabad. No uneasiness need, therefore, be felt as to the prospects of the troops operating in this part of the theatre of war. The Government of India, cruelly disabused by last month's fighting of its delusion as to the sufficiency of General Roberts's little army to guard its camp and communications and keep all Northern Afghanistan in order, has at last pushed forward forces large enough to set Sir F. Roberts at his ease as regards the safety of Sherpur and the line of communications with India, and to give him a corps of probably five thousand men which he can keep in constant readiness to strike a blow with at the enemy wherever he may appear. Mahomed Jan must have had experience enough of the hopelessness of attacking the British camp with a host of undisciplined soldiery to keep him from being at all anxious to renew this enterprise now that General Roberts is so much better prepared to receive him ; and we think it likely, therefore, that he will be content to remain on the defensive at Ghazni, collecting revenue and organizing his levies as best he may.

Ghazni, then, is the objective point to be aimed at in any further operations undertaken for the establishment of English supremacy in Afghanistan. Now that reinforcements are on their way to Kandahar as well as Kabul, the British strength available for a spring campaign, which may be commenced in the middle of March, may be computed roughly at fifty thousand men, of whom about one-half will form the northern, and the other half the southern, army of occupation. No doubt, General Roberts will claim the right of making the capture of Ghazni his main business ; and it would be unfair to deny him the privilege of crushing the Afghan chief who inflicted on him the humiliation of seeing the city of Kabul plundered while his own troops dared not venture out of camp. But it is certainly desirable that General Stewart also should send a strong brigade from K

LATEST INTELLIGENCE.

(FROM THE PRESS COMMISSIONER.)

KABUL INTELLIGENCE.

CALCUTTA, JAN. 25.

Mulla Khalil, after the defeat of his band near Daka, has joined another section of the Mohmunds. His people are reported to have dispersed much discouraged by their losses.

The Khugianis have declined to follow the Mullahs, saying that every gathering to attack British troops has eventually ended in damaging failure.

No fresh news from the Lughman valley.

Asmatulla Khan is still in the same country attended by a small personal following.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT).

THE HINDUS OF KABUL.

CANVASSING FOR SUPPORT AMONGST THE GHAZNI LEADERS.

A NEW DIVISION AT KABUL.

ALLAHABAD, KUTTRA, JAN. 25.

KABUL, Jan. 23.—Efforts are being made to re-assure the Hindus who have made preparations to leave Kabul. Wali Mahomed has been directed to carry out the wishes of General Roberts in this direction, but the difficulty is that we cannot make known the exact lines of our future policy towards Afghanistan generally.

The Ghazni leaders are still actively canvassing for support. A messenger has been sent by Mahomedan Jan to the Kohistanis and other tribesmen, inviting all old sepoys to make for Ghazni, where regular pay has been promised them. An appeal to all the Mahomedans has also been sent out, but little response has been made, as the mass of the people believe that opposition to the British would be useless.

General Ross now occupies the line as far as Daka, thus liberating more of the troops under General Bright for a portion of the road between Basawal and Lattabund.

A new division has been made for political work. Major Hastings, assisted by Lieut. Ramsay, has been placed in charge of the Kabul district and revenue work; also manages in conjunction with Wali Mahomed, Governor of Kabul. Colonel Tweedie, assisted by Lieutenant Neville Chamberlain, has charge of dealings with the outlying tribes, such as the Kohistanis, Logaris, etc. Captain Burton has charge of the road between Kabul and Jamrud.

A Special Committee composed of Hyat Khan and Gholam Hussain, has been ordered to determine the compensation to be paid to Sirdars for property they lost during Mahomed Jan's late occupation of Kabul.

Sixteen telegraph and twenty-four heliograph stations are now open between Kabul and Jamrud.

TELEGRAPHIC LINE REPORTS.

DEOPANI, JAN. 25.

Field office opened Naga field line.

We hear by telegram that Loodhiana fever has broken out in the 13th Hussars at Lucknow.

THE following was the field state at the weekly parade of the Volunteers on Saturday afternoon :—16 officers, 2 field officers, 2 staff officers, 18 sergeants, 5 staff sergeants, 7 buglers, and 66 rank and file. The band consisted of the sergeant, the corporal and 25 privates.

THE steamer Clan Alpine, with a general London cargo, about 2,000 tons, was taken into the Prince's Dock yesterday morning at 9 o'clock.

THE London correspondent of the Pioneer says that Mr. Bosworth Smith, of Harrow, the author of Mahomed and Mahomedanism, is about to visit India with a view to completing his life of Lord Lawrence. The object of his journey is to get up information, to see some of the scenes he will have to describe, and to give his work some degree of local colouring.

THE reader, says the Pioneer, may perhaps recollect the case of the Rev. George Brown. Mr. Brown is a missionary to the heathen; the scene of his labours being the Pacific Islands. Some few of the heathen became converted, but the majority would have nothing to say to Mr. Brown, and they even supported their religious view by violence. Australian bushrangers, we believe, have a custom of "sticking up" inoffensive and defenceless people. A man finds his house broken into by armed ruffians; he and his family, threatened with revolvers, are forcibly confined in one of the rooms, and the bushrangers loot the house. The heathen we have mentioned "stuck up" some of Mr. Brown's native converts; whereupon the reverend missionary, conceiving that he belonged to a church militant, organised an expedition, and "stuck up" the heathen. These reprisals were not bloodless, a few of the heathen being killed in the confusion of the affair. The story created a passing excitement in the colony; and there were not wanting at the time, people who said that the missionary had acted wrongly. The Secretary of State was even moved to order an enquiry; which order seems to have been carried out, though the result is not yet generally known. Meanwhile, the local authorities have gone so far as to charge the Rev. George Brown with manslaughter; in that he did, on or about the 9th April, 1878, kill and slay certain natives of New Britain. On the 13th November last, Mr. Brown appeared to answer this tardy charge before the Judicial Commissioner at Auckland. The Attorney-General, however, withdrew from the prosecution, and the proceedings were quashed. The Rev. George Brown's services ought to be placed at the disposal of the Government of the Punjab,—he would make an excellent Deputy Commissioner for a scientific frontier district. As a missionary, he is too earnest.

THE Indian Daily News, discussing the present position of affairs at "Rumpo," says that, judging from the ill-success of the operations heretofore, we should think it is time for the Madras Government to change their plans for something better; otherwise the rebellion may very possibly extend itself into the Hydrabad territory. Resistance of taxation, and specially successful resistance of it, is at once a sympathetic and an exciting cause of disturbance in India. The temptation to others to do likewise, which the Godavery rebels are now freely offering to all the taxed, must be almost irresistible, when we consider the ignorance of the people concerned, and the prospects of loot which the rebels hold out to those who will join them.

PROFESSOR MINAEFF, of the St. Petersburg University, is coming to India "to further the investigation which is being made in regard to Buddhism and its idols." There are some interesting Buddhist remains, as our readers know, in Afghanistan.

THE "Benighted" have been complaining of the weather at Madras, and now we have the same cry from Karrachee. The Sind Issue of the Civil and Military Gazette says:—We are not having anything like "seasonable weather." It is not well for the thermometer, in the middle of January, to be marking some 68° or 72° in the early mornings in place of at least 10 or 12 degrees less. As a matter of course we may expect a sickly season to follow as the normal consequence. Such has, at least, been the experience of the older residents; and we very much fear such will be found to occur again unless we should—even late as it is—have even yet our "cold weather rain," and a consequent fall in the "tube." In other parts of the world near to us the cold seems to be rather more than usual. We heard of 17 degrees of frost at Cabul the other day. Ice is constant from Quetta to Kandahar, and we learn by private letters received here that not only has rain fallen in Bushire, but that they had a few days before the 4th, a heavy fall of snow in and around that dirty "father of cities," which is said not to have been the case in the memory of the "oldest inhabitant." Snow had fallen extensively prior to this in the country some miles off and on the hills where it usually falls, and rain also; but the letters do not state whether or not the fall has come sufficiently early to stave off the apprehended famine.

THE latest official reports from British Burma state that the crops were being harvested satisfactorily.

THE Chief Commissioner of Burma is expected at Akyab on the 24th instant, and will probably visit the hill tracts.

COLONEL COCHRANE, V.C., Commanding the 43rd Regiment, at present in Burma, is, the Englishman writes, obliged to go home on medical certificate.

FROM a local paper we learn that the health of the troops in garrison at Rangoon has not at all been good for some time back. Large numbers of men have been in hospital suffering from a somewhat peculiar form of fever; a fever which is not, however, considered by the doctors as epidemic. The 89th P. V. Regiment is perhaps the greatest sufferer.

A SPORTING club has been established in Bangalore. It is open to all ranks of the community, both civil and military. The entrance fee is sixteen rupees and the monthly subscription is eight annas. The club is to meet every Saturday for the transaction of business. It is to record and superintend cricket matches, paper chases, horse races, &c., and it is to be a stakeholder.

THE Rangoon Times says that matters still remain in statu quo as far as Upper Burma is concerned. The Embassy under old Pio Nono, as he has been facetiously called, still lingers at Thayetmyo, where it is likely to remain until the patience of Theebaw becomes exhausted; and when that consummation is to be reached no one can possibly say.

So long as King Theebaw behaves as he is behaving now, there will, it may with safety be predicated, be no change. Trade is back nearly, if not quite to its normal conditions, and to all outward appearances is likely to remain as it is. There are not wanting, it may be here remarked, many who say that the present state of affairs is much too good to last. The King, say these, is not to be trusted. At present he is only endeavouring to prove that he can manage his country much more satisfactorily without a British Resident than with one. By-and-bye, when he has to his own satisfaction proved this, he will alter his tone, and probably be induced to attempt something far more ambitious.

SMALL-POX, though not of a severe type, continues to be reported from the Central Provinces; it is prevalent in Sumbulpore, Bhandara, and Jubbulpore.

CATTLE-DISEASE is reported to have occurred in some parts of Raepore.

A CHINESE, named Huang Hao-po, or Huang Mou-tsai, a native of Kiang-si, last year obtained permission from the Emperor to travel in Thibet for the purpose of inspecting the boundaries of that country and to go thence to India. Mr. Huang started from Szechuen last autumn, and went through Thibet as far as Lhassa, where, finding the road before him barred, he turned east again, and, passing along the frontier of Yunnan, reached Burma. From Burma he went to Bengal, arriving there last April or May; after which he spent some months in India and then returned to China by sea. Mr. Huang is represented as having paid great attention to the geography of the unknown or half-known countries which he passed through. He asserts very positively that the Tsang-pu (or Sam-po), the great river of Thibet, does not flow into the Brahmaputra, but into a Burmese river, presumably the Irrawaddy.

THE Pall Mall Gazette publishes under the heading "The Limitation of Parliamentary Authority" the following very suggestive letter:—"Sir,—The suggestion made by one of your correspondents as to the advisability of regarding the army and navy and the force at which they should be maintained as something apart from ordinary political questions, might be extended with advantage so as to include those questions of foreign politics with which the maintenance of the army and navy on an adequate footing is so intimately connected. This, it is true, would be a signal departure from the principles of representative government, and would be generally looked upon as an approach towards a despotic system. But a certain German reformer, when it was pointed out to him that the changes he was advocating would lead to anarchy, replied that a genial or sympathetic anarchy —"eine gemüthliche" Anarchy—was not a thing to be despised; and as much may surely be said on behalf of intelligent despotism. Such a question as whether Cabul should or should not at a particular crisis be occupied by an English force is neither a Liberal nor a Conservative question. Yet the occupation of Cabul was the work of a Liberal Government in 1839, as it has been the work of a Conservative Government in 1879; and just as the occupation of Cabul is opposed by the Liberal party in 1879, so it was opposed by the Conservative party in 1839. The Conservative party was at that time the economical party, and the party which supported Russia; while the Liberal party was enterprising in foreign politics and eminently anti-Russian.—H. S. P."

WE understand that H. E. the Governor will not leave Bombay for Kurrachee to-morrow, as was originally intended, but will probably go by the next Kurrachee mail steamer.

THE Secretary to the Chamber of Commerce favours us with the following telegram reporting on the state of the cotton crop in the Berars, from the Commissioner H. A. D., dated Amraoti, 23rd January, 1880, circulated for the information of members of the Chamber:—"Cotton gathered. Outturn as before stated."

REGARDING the attitude of the Momund tribe the Civil and Military Gazette says:—The hostile demonstration of the Momunds seems to have been effectually checked by their recent defeats, and even the reprisals carried into their country by Colonel Boisragon failed to rouse their flagging desire for more fighting. It would, however, be premature to credit them with an altogether pacific temper just at present, and our arrangements for the due mobilization of small moveable columns along the line of posts from Ali Musjid to Jellalabad should be perfected as though this tribe were expected to give farther trouble.

No one's services have been of more direct public benefit, says the Pioneer, than those of the inventor of the heliograph. Mr. Manse, the gentleman who is entitled to that honour, is now Electrician to the Indo-European Telegraph Company. But, as far as we know, the recognition by Government of the utility of his insurument has hitherto certainly not been a scale commensurate with the benefits and advantages reaped from its universal use in military operations, both in Zululand and Afghanistan. It is impossible to estimate the saving, both as regards time, anxiety, and expenditure, which has been caused by the use of heliographs; and our readers have only to refer to the recent events at Sherpur, where it so well supplied the place of the destroyed telegraph line, to judge for themselves whether the inventor is not entitled to substantial reward from Government.

THE Pioneer calls attention to the harm that is being done by the prolonged silence of Government with regard to the future of Kabul. It is unfair to the troops, who are kept without "loot, love or liberty;" and it is doubly unfair to the population we are holding in subjection for the moment, but possibly intending to hand over to the mercy of any native chiefs who may get the upper hand a little later on, after we have gone away. The incident which occurred the other day on Mahomed Jan's retreat is but too deeply illustrative of this last unfairness. One of his subordinate commanders turned aside to punish the thieves for the part they had played in the war as our allies. The Indian Government will hear more about this episode, later on, when its full meaning penetrates the British mind.

THE Indian Mirror, which ought to be infallible, announces in its issue of Thursday last, that "Daud Shah, the ex-Commander-in-Chief of the Kabul Army, and a few other Afghan prisoners, arrived in Calcutta yesterday." We have already informed our readers on what we believe is more reliable authority, that Daud Shah has been sent to Ajmere. The same paper says that the Maharaja of Travancore has been enjoying indifferent health lately.

THE E. Battery B. Brigade Royal Horse Artillery, stationed at Kirkee, has been ordered to proceed to the frontier for immediate service.

THE depôt of the 5th Regt. N. I., under the command of Major Pemberton, Bombay Staff Corps, left for Sholapore by the passenger train yesterday morning.

THE embarkation of the 2nd Battery 9th Brigade Royal Artillery, now at Deolalee, and which was to proceed home in H. M.'s Indian troopship Jumna on the 27th inst., has been countermanded.

RUMOURS gather strength, says the Lahore paper, that the long contemplated formation of the new frontier province on the North-West of the empire is about to be attempted, and it is said that Mr. Lepel Griffin's summons to Calcutta is connected with this scheme. It is nearly two years since the proposal was fully discussed in our columns, and we shall take an early opportunity of considering it again with reference to the changes wrought in the position of affairs since that time by the progress of the war beyond our border. This surmise is, however, most probably incorrect, for the Bombay Review claims to have received a telegram which it justly remarks appears to indicate some turning point in the political conduct of Afghan affairs:—Mr. Lepel Griffin, of the Punjab Service, is appointed Chief Political Officer for Northern and Eastern Afghanistan. He leaves early for Kabul. His line of policy will be towards peace and averse to force or annexation, he being a follower of Lord Lawrence.

THE Pioneer thinks that it is high time to call attention to the extreme cruelty of the manner in which horses are branded at the Government Remount Depôts. The unhappy animal to be operated on is tied up and each figure of the total number, by which he is to be in future distinguished, is separately burnt into his neck, one figure at a time. At present the current numeral is above 9,000: four times, therefore, the operator approaches the terrified beast with his hot iron and strikes it into his flesh, and four times the horse plunges and strives to break away at the imminent risk of injury to himself and the operator. Surely, too, his temper and confidence in man must be impaired by such treatment. Is it beyond the reach of science to invent a type of brand in which all the figures can be fixed in a row, and by means of which the horse may be marked in full once for all and released after the one pang without further torment? The horse as now branded bears the "mark of the beast;" but whether man or horse is the beast in this case, we leave common humanity to decide.

SIR MICHAEL KENNEDY has arrived in Calcutta.

THE directors of the Bank of Bengal at their meeting, on Thursday last, raised the rates of interest on discount one per cent. all round.

LIEUTENANT-COLONEL E. R. C. WILCOX, of the Staff Corps, at present doing general duty at Kanhpur, is, the Englishman says, about to retire from the service under the field officers' retirement scheme.

MAJOR E. R. CONOLLY, from Kohat, goes as officiating Judicial Assistant to Peshawar.

MAJOR M. FURLONG has been appointed Deputy Commissioner of the Town of Moulmein.

THE district reports from Bengal for the week ended the 17th January, show that rain was wanted in parts of the Bardwan Presidency, Patna, Bhagalpur, and Chutia Nagpur divisions, but still the prospects of the winter crops are said to be good, as also is the general health of the people. Prices of food grains remain much the same.

A RESOLUTION of the Bengal Government on the State Railway revenue report for the year 1878-79, says that the capital outlay during the year was Rs. 66,41,043, bringing the total, to the 31st March last, up to Rs. 2,75,91,838. The amount of interest payable to the Imperial Treasury on this sum being Rs. 10,92,210, and that of the nett receipts Rs. 3,96,666, the balance for which the provincial resources were liable was Rs. 6,95,544. The gross receipts for the year amounted to Rs. 18,11,043 against Rs. 7,56,183 in the year 1877-78, and the working expenses to Rs. 14,14,377 against Rs. 5,87,942, thus leaving a nett balance of Rs. 3,96,666, as above, against Rs. 1,68,241. This is a considerable improvement; but the working expenses seem disproportionately heavy, especially on the Northern Bengal line, where they amounted to Rs. 9,15,451 against Rs. 1,65,411 in 1877-78. This increase is in a great measure due to the opening of the line throughout its entire length, but the Lieutenant-Governor regards it as unduly heavy, and steps have been taken, the resolution says, to obtain a better result in future.

THE Asian announces that the proposed second race meeting at Calcutta will not come off, owing to a lack of funds.

A DIFFICULT agricultural problem is thus treated by the Bombay Guardian:—A friend from the South of India was speaking to us the other day of the great benefit that had accrued to the fields in the famine districts from the respite which they had had from cultivation in the last two years. Such harvests as have appeared this last season have not been witnessed for a great many years. This brought to our mind the institution of a Sabbatic year given to the Jews by God, but of which they do not appear to have had faith to avail themselves. There can be little doubt that it would have been for the good of the fields, and consequently for the good of the people, if they had observed this command and allowed the lands to lie untilled one year in seven, providing for the necessities of that year in the six years of abundance. The Jews, as we said, did not observe this law, and after the lapse of about 420 years from the time of David, the Lord claimed the 70 years due him and carried the Jews into captivity for that period. Immediately after the six days' creation God sanctified the seventh day, and the Sabbatic rest belongs to creation, though through man's apostasy it is at present deprived of it.

THE following paragraph from the Pall Mall Gazette will be read with interest in connection with the change of the Russian base from Tchikislar now carried out:—According to the Times the proposed military tramway from the eastern shore of the Caspian to Fort Kizil-Arvat, which will cost, it is estimated, 3,000,000 roubles (or, taking the value of the rouble at 2s. 10d., £428,572), will be 23 kilometres (rather less than fifteen miles) long. It is, perhaps, almost needless to remark that the distance from St. Michaels Bay, the starting point of the railway to Fort Kizil-Arvat, is 230 kilometres, or very nearly 150 miles; and that consequently the cost of constructing the tramway will not be £18,633 per mile, but a tenth of that sum. The tramway, it may be added, after leaving St. Michael's Bay, will run at first in a south-easterly direction, skirting the southern slope of the Great Balkan; then taking a somewhat less southerly or more easterly direction, it will run along the foot of the northern slopes of the Little Balkan and of the Kuren Dagh. From Kizil-Arvat there is already a good road along the northern slopes of the Kopet Dagh to Miania, which is less than 100 miles from Merv, so that the comple ion of the proposed tramway will very materially facilitate the advance of the next Russian expedition leaving the shores of the Caspian for that place. Last summer the Russian troops marched from Tchikislar, and not from St. Michal's Bay, to Kizil-Arvat—the more southerly route being preferred probably in the expecta ion of obtaining supplies from the rich districts round Astrabad, and water from the River Attrek, up the valley of which the road takes its way. The water of the Attrek was, however, found to be undrinkable, the river in summer shrinking to a small muddy and impure stream.

THE last paragraphs of the concluding volume of "Royal Windsor," which Mr. Hepworth Dixon had just completed before his death, are as follows:—"The central figure in the family group is veiled. The veil is not without a silver lining, but the veil is here; a habit of the mind as well as of the physical frame. No great emotion should be seen too near. To read the story of such a loss we need some help from time and space. When Queen Victoria has become to the descendants of her people what Queen Elizabeth is to us; when all the trifles of our time are gone, and only the realities left, the story of her love, her happiness, her loss, will be a favourite theme of poets, artists, and storytellers. Faith, that no limit, constancy that clings like life, are not of every age. What will the writers of a coming day, who take this theme for tale and idyll, have to tell? They will draw the picture of a young and fatherless girl, called, while in her teens, to occupy the greatest throne on earth; who had to take her place at the head of a great society, with little or no support from her immediate kin. They will paint her grandeur and her loneliness in a station which allows no sharer and admits no friend. They will show the Saxon prince who came to her and made himself a part of her; then, in line on line, the story of her life will be unrolled—years of domestic bliss, broken at length by sudden mourning in the very noon-tide of their married joy. Then may come the pathetic sequel of a sorrow which knows no change, which draws away from the haunts of men which lays down much of the pomp of Royal state, and gives up all the vanities of the world—not in old age, when blood is said to be cold, but in the flush of life, when all the tides of emotion are running high—to nurse in solitude a deep and tender sentiment of personal faith. Millions will dwell with fondness on this story of a human heart, in which the woman rises to a higher throne than that of Queen."

THE Bombay Catholic Examiner states that Mgr. Melizan, whom the holy see has named Coadjutor to Bishop Bonjean, Vicar Apostolic of Northern Ceylon, was to be consecrated Bishop during the present month. The editor says he says the Mgr. Melizan's family is "much blessed of Heaven," and then gives, amongst other proofs of that assertion, the fact that his mother has been "for ten years past a bed-ridden paralytic." All the same, Mgr. Melizan appears to belong to an exceptionally worthy family. His father, M. Vincent Melizan, has for fifty-six years held a distinguished position in the French Consular Service. One of his brothers is a distinguished officer in the Messageries-Maritimes, who was decorated when he was only twenty-three years old during the Crimean war, and has had the honour of opening the line from Marseilles to Japan; another is a Missionary Bishop; two are Dominicans, one of whom has left a brilliant name in the French Medical School; another an ex-Zouave under Charrette, who, with two more brothers of his, represented his family under the French flag during the disasters of 1870-71; finally, a brother-in-law was also a Zouave under Charette.

AN Exhibition of fine arts and manufacture will, according to Russian papers, be held at Moscow in 1881. The proposal to hold a World's Fair in New York in 1883 has been favourably received, and the committee has called a mass meeting to give an impetus to the project.

GLASGOW is not yet at least going to ruin the diamond miners at the Cape, as we were led to believe the other day, when a statement was made to the effect that a chemist in that city had discovered how to produce the most precious of gems artificially. Mr. Maskelyne, of the British Museum, has examined the Glasgow diamonds—or rather the almost imperceptible grains of dust sent to him as specimens of home-made diamonds—and he is not quite sure that they are, though he is sure they are not diamonds. As well known the diamond exceeds all other substances in hardness, but the Glasgow gem is not hard enough even to scratch topaz. Then they do not behave under polarised light as diamonds do. Lastly, diamonds, being pure carbon, will burn away when heated; but "the little particles from Glasgow," says Mr. Maskelyne, obstinately refuse to be burnt, even in the intense heat of a blowpipe. They are probably a "crystallised silicate, possibly one resembling an agnite." So for a time the diamond dealers may again breathe freely, and defy the Glasgow chemist who has done his best to frighten them out of their wits. The conditions for cooling vaporised carbon and getting it deposited in crystalline form as diamond, involve a combination of enormously high temperature and severe pressure not likely to be attained except in the bowels of the earth.

THE Standard of the 20th ultimo was "illustrated" by woodcuts representing the Tay Bridge as it appeared before the accident that destroyed it, but the execution of the cut is so wretched that it serves neither the purpose of use or ornament; the Daily Telegraph illustrated the disaster in the same way, and it must be admitted far more successfully.

THE STRANGERS' LINES.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—On reading that curious letter from "Kindergarten" which appeared in to-day's Gazette, I confess it fairly took away my breath. That the writer lives in or about the "Strangers' Lines" seems certain; and this, apparently, is the secret of his championship of the poor little babes who (according to him) are groping for more space in which to stretch their little legs. He wants a playground for European children; but where are they to come from in sufficient numbers to occupy "all that or those magnificent place or parcel of land and its appurtenances—so level, so soft, so 'nice,' and so snugly railed in and protected from rude 'equestrian ducks'—which lies so invitingly in front of the Secretariat, the University, and the High Court buildings?" There is the spacious and beautiful playground; but where are the bright-faced chicks? Not in Bombay, certainly; therefore they must (I presume) be imported forthwith just to gratify the luscious, longing, rolling orbs of our own sweet paternal "Kindergarten!"

Now, for the next point touched upon by your correspondent in respect of fresh air. The "native gentlemen who sit all along the wall" are admittedly an eyesore to the "walking Europeans" who, like myself, are dwellers or sojourners in those mysterious-looking tabernacles which adorn the "Strangers' Lines," where so many official "pilgrims of the night" sleep the happy hours away. That native gentlemen, or any other species of men or of women either, mounted on the cold grey coping of the old beach wall, could by any possibility deprive either strangers, sojourners, or pilgrims, of the ever fresh, life-giving, breezes of the sea is only a pleasing, harmless fiction—a sort of metaphorical expression suitable for minds of the "Kinder-gries" type and need not therefore be discussed; but to say that the Commander-in-Chief and the high officers of the army staff by whom His Excellency is attended, are really innocent impediments, shutting out both light and air from our labyrinth of rare and costly tabernacles, is to furnish very ungracious evidence of the blackest ingratitude to those gentlemen to whose bright presence we are so much indebted for all the pleasures and amenities we now have, or hope to enjoy, in this most monotonous section of the vale of tears through which most of us are at present passing. There are some people, for instance, who fondly imagine that His Excellency and his accomplished staff come here, as perennials, for purely military purposes; whereas it is well known that the principal object of their annual visit is to infuse some of their "life" and energy into the drowsy citizens of this dreary capital—to impart to Bombay "society," freely and without price, that brilliancy of "style" and superiority of "tone" which Buckland so sadly lacks after the deteriorating influences of each succeeding monsoon.

But there is another point which "Kindergarten" has somewhat stupidly missed. The very fact of His Excellency and staff condescending to dwell in tents at all, side-by-side too with us official pilgrims, and in such close contiguity to our mournful "lines", not only gives us heart, but also raises our hopes and aspirations far above the commercial strata of Malabar Hill and the "curiosities" of Breach Candy.

One word more for "Kindergarden" complains that the "Strangers' Lines" are monopolised by official pilgrims, to the unjust exclusion of the general public. Never was an assertion more fallacious; for, at this moment, I believe there is a legal pilgrim—a small limb of the law—a "private practitioner"—snugly pitched on a sacred spot towards the going down of the sun "as thou goest towards the Doperage"—who is he? Surely not a sojourner from an official planet? And, if not, what brings that personage there; or by what non-official right or tenure does he occupy his tabernacle?

THE KANDAHAR FRAUDS.

A SIND paper gives the following details:—

There appear to have been some pretty doings in the "front" among the "Commissariat-wallahs." No wonder that the poor Native troops are supplied with flour that is half chaff and dust, "dhall" that is dirty and nauseous, ghee that is mainly a mixture of fat and oil, and other nameless abominations that may be better conceived than described, when Commissariat Inspectors are remitting their thousands of rupees to their Karrachee correspondents and friends as the result of their handsome "pay and pickings" in the "theatre of war." One Cowasjee Rustomjee is the exemplar—for the time being—of this little paradox. His father, we are told, occupies or occupied the responsible position of "cordon bleu" among the Parsee culinary artists of this place. The son, evidently a genius, was employed primarily on a stipend of Rs. 30, which was increased on his going to the "front" till he was made an Inspector on ten times the wages. How long the system of peculation has been going on it would be very difficult to tell. Anyhow Colonel Shewell has been the first to put his hand on the plot. In the good old days of Wellington and his pupils, the Napiers, commissariat rascals who climbed the hard-working soldiers out of his food used to be summarily tried by a drum head court-martial and hanged. Nous avons change tout cela, and even a thieving dog must have a fair trial before he shares the proverbial fate of his tribe attaching to a "bad name." So the case has resolved itself—for the present—into a police investigation, in which, so far, sundry extraordinary facts have come out. On "information received" the police called at the house of a Native banker, Moolree Heeranand, and ascertained from his books and the statement of the manager, Mathuram Serroomull, that the firm had received advices from Kandahar of Rs. 20,000 in favour of Shapurjee Hormusjee Soopareewalla, and that this gentleman had presented to them bundies, each of Rs. 5,000, which had not been paid owing to their not having reached maturity. Payment of these bundies has since been stopped by a notice from the Collector. The bundies were due on the 17th instant. The officials are now looking after the cashees Ragoo of Shikarpur. It has turned out also that remittances by telegram and post have been received from Kandahar to a rather large extent by parties here. Byramjee Eduljee, a shop-keeper, received, we are told, about Rs. 15,000, another individual some 5,000 or 6,000, which, it is said, have enabled him to close off his debts and to clear. All this is but about this the reports afloat are somewhat conflicting; and Shapurjee Hormusjee Rs. 14,000 prior to the remittance of the Rs. 20,000 above alluded to. Mr. Shapurjee does not appear to have received the sum of Rs. 14,000 in question per last—remitted through the local treasury by one Adamjee (who emigrated to Kandahar from Kurrachee) in two drafts of Rs. 10,000 and Rs. 4,000. Mr. Byramjee Eduljee's son, Framjee Byramjee, is said to have taken upwards of Rs. 30,000 worth of merchandise into Kandahar which are waiting transit at Quetta for Kandahar. Whether the Rs. 15,000 sent from that place were remitted on account of Cowasjee himself or Dadabhoy

BEST QUALITY TRIPLE ELECTRO-PLATE.
MANUFACTURED TO THE SPECIAL ORDER OF

C. MARCKS AND COMPANY,

BOMBAY, 4, Hummum Street. POONA, 1, East Street.

WE long hesitated before undertaking this important branch of business, as we are aware of the immense amount of inferior articles manufactured and sold as the best quality (Electro-plate having so many qualities) by unscrupulous traders and eventually giving no satisfaction to purchasers.

After mature deliberation we have had a large quantity made expressly for us by a leading firm, and as our goods are triple-plated (i. e., have undergone the silvering process THREE TIMES, thereby ensuring a heavy coating of PURE SILVER on superior hard white metal), we can guarantee them to stand ordinary usage for twenty years.

Until the introduction of DR. BRIGHT'S Phosphodyne, 1869, Phosphorus was but seldom prescribed as a Medicine, owing to the difficulty in so preparing it that its action could be kept under perfect control. It had been used in Almond and Olive Oils, in Sulphuric Ether, in rectified Alcohol, in Chloroform, and in several advertised medicines, but in all the hitherto known methods of its preparation, certain irregular results have been experienced, which have led Physicians to neglect it for general purposes, and to employ it only in extreme cases. But in the form of Dr. Bright's Phosphodyne, its invaluable action on the human system is realized without any of those drawbacks which previous modes of preparation have invariably produced.

☞CAUTION—Beware of a WORTHLESS IMITATION advertised in a few Indian Newspapers. Dr. Bright's (the only Genuine) Phosphodyne is the safest and most reliable preparation of Phosphorus and the only medicine of that name recommended by the Medical Faculty. The Trade Mark, Label, &c., of DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE are duly entered at Stationers' Hall, London, and are also Registered in the chief cities of the World. Vendors of the Fraudulent Imitation in the United Kingdom, India, China, or the Colonies will be prosecuted without further notice.

Dr. Bright's Phosphodyne is now acknowledged by the first medical men in Europe, by whom it is recommended as the most efficacious medicine hitherto discovered for Weak and Shattered Constitutions, Nervous Debility, Aversion or Incapacity for Study, Trembling of the Limbs, Indigestion, Female Complaints, Flatulence, Liver Complaints, Shortness of Breath, Drowsiness, Pains in the Head, Pimples, Impoverished Blood, and all diseases caused by a long residence in tropical climates, for which iron, mercury, iodide of potass, &c., are given in various forms, often to the destruction of the patient's health.

The beneficial effects of the Phosphodyne are frequently shown from the first day of its administration, by a remarkable increase of nervous power, with a feeling of vigour and comfort, entirely overcoming that dull, inactive, and sluggish disposition which many persons experience in all their actions.
